

Every Child Deserves A Family

Cynthia, 9 Steve, 7

Cynthia and Steve are affectionate and charming. Cynthia is outgoing, whereas Steve is more shy and quiet. They are mixed race of Carribean and Canadian heritage with gorgeous brown eyes and beautiful long eyelashes.

Cynthia has many hobbies and activities such as swimming, soccer, dancing, reading and drawing. She is an average student and does not demonstrate any academic difficulty. Steve enjoys most activities and benefits from being involved in organized sports. He is a typical 7 year old boy who loves to play.

Cynthia can be demanding and is somewhat impulsive. She is eager to please and at times has difficulty in setting healthy boundaries. Although Steve has no identified learning disabilities, he does require a lot of assistance with homework. He is currently benefiting from extra resource help from a tutor.

Cynthia and Steve thrive on positive attention and will benefit from some one-to-one attention. Cynthia will need an adoptive family to have realistic expectations to help her with setting healthy boundaries. Both Cynthia and Steve would do well in a Carribean Canadian family where they could learn and treasure their heritage. The adoptive family will need to be willing to allow ongoing contact with their biological family.
